Accessibility Plan 2018-19

(1) Introduction

1.1 The SEN and Disability Act (2001) extended the Disability Discrimination Act (DDA) (1995) to cover education. Since September 2002, the Governing Bodies of Schools and Academies have had three key duties towards disabled pupils under Part 4 of the DDA:

(i) Not to treat disabled pupils less favourably for a reason related to their disability.

(ii) To make reasonable adjustments for disabled pupils, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage.

(iii) To plan to increase access to education for disabled pupils.

1.2 This duty requires schools to produce an Accessibility Plan, published and evaluated annually, which identifies the action the school intends to take over a three year period to increase access for those with a disability in three key areas. The three areas are:

(i) Increasing the extent to which disabled pupils are able to participate in the school curriculum.

(ii) Improving the environment of the school to increase the extent to which disabled students can take advantage of education and associated services.

(iii) Improving the delivery to disabled students of information which is provided in writing for students who are not disabled.

1.3 In addition, the Equality Act 2010 requires all schools to:

- Eliminate discrimination that is unlawful under the DDA
- Eliminate harassment of those with a disability
- Promote positive attitudes towards disabled persons
- Encourage participation by disabled individuals
- Take steps to take account of disabilities even if this involves treating disabled persons more favourably

(2) Definition of Disability

2.1 A person has a disability under the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 if he or she has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities. Physical or mental impairments can include sensory impairments (such as those affecting sight and hearing) and learning difficulties. The definition also covers certain medical conditions when they have a long-term and substantial effect on pupils' everyday lives.

(3) Review

3.1 This Accessibility Plan will be reported upon annually in respect of progress and outcomes, with a full review being completed every three years.

OFSTED inspections may include a school's accessibility plan as part of their review.
