What Went Well

Christmas Concert – Wednesday 19 December

ABR - Tickets for this fantastic event go on sale on 11 December from the Box Office on the Lower Mall, costing £4 for adults and £1 for children. This year we have 2 shows – one starting at 6pm featuring our Y10 students and another at 8pm featuring our Y11 students. We look forward to seeing you all there for wonderful dance, drama and musical performances!

Landaus First Ever Winter Fair

ABR - Our first ever Winter Fair was a great success! Thank you to all our students and their families who attended. Also, thank you to the staff who supported and made this exciting event possible. The Landau Bake Off was a fabulous success, well done to our winner Isla. We had a wide variety of stalls which meant there was something for everyone! We also raised money for the Teenage Cancer Trust. Well done everyone, we are now really in the Christmas spirit!

The Christmas Fair also raised an incredible £569.86 for the Teenage Cancer Trust. Thank you to everyone who supported and contributed. The Bake Off was the stall that contributed the most money, £147. Well done!

Year 7 Camp

HLG - Last week our Year 7s were on residential at Lea Green. They fully enjoyed the experience and will hopefully take away some fantastic memories of their visit.

Inter-House Competition Term 2

CHW - The House Competition has continued to maintain its Grand National feel with an early bolter, a stumbling pony and a 150-1 outsider chasing the pack. Yes, Mr Rowe, Equality are the 150-1 outsider, nowhere to be seen. Mr Rowe's Equality had shown early glimpses of quality following his words of wisdom, however since then we have heard 6 words from his house in the form of a story 'Rowe hosts bottom place, all alone.'*

If Mr Andrews had ever questioned if karma was real, in the house competition world, by now his house will know this is such a thing. Versatility stumble over every fence with their leader clinging onto every participation point whilst Mr Carey's Diversity pocket top 3 finishes as if they were Paul Smith suits on the discount rail. Diversity appear to have arrived like the Polar Express, steaming past Equality to ensure there is still an outside chance of a Landau's Christmas number one.

Anyway. The real talking point is the house favourite, the early bolter, the bookies favourite, the one, the only, stuttering Liberty House! As the November skies changed for the slightly murkier looking December ones, Mrs Rowe roamed reception as if she was a Lioness off Dynasties, letting the stragglers below, know that indeed this was to be Liberty's year. However, every house has its day as Opportunity, lived up to their name and stole top spot in the same week that Delbridge's beloved Liverpool burgled the same position. Delbridge, reminds me of the cunning fox, quietly going about his work, eyeing the prime position in reception that Mrs Rowe once possessed. However, for you beady eyed onlookers, there is a Cornish man suddenly beaming on his perch in reception awaiting the battle for Landau's Christmas Number One.

*Real six-word story winner by Equality was 'Satan hosts a neighbourhood barbeque alone.'

IC Update

Have a look at the glass case outside of the IC – you will see our very own 'Knitivity'. Our nativity scene has been knitted by members of staff using one of our many pattern books. If you like knotting you can find patterns for the Olympics, the Royal Family, babies booties and much more.

We have a lot of charity Christmas and Season's Greetings cards for sale – they were donations so we are asking you to donate anything you like (from 1p to £1.00) per card. This money will go into next Wednesday's charity.

Some students have been making hedgehogs and Christmas trees from old books. You may see them around college as they fold and crease the pages, resulting in a piece of up-cycled art. If you want to have a go yourself, call into the IC and one of the staff will show you how to do the folds. We have plenty of withdrawn books for you to use.
