

Landau Learner Curriculum Overview

Subject: GCSE Religious Studies Director of Learning: Mr P Butler Year 11

Curriculum organisation
Students are taught in a mixed ability group for 5 sessions a fortnight.
What topics will students be studying this year? Includes links to National Curriculum, Curriculum Intent and Prior Related Learning*
Term 1	Term 2	Term 3	Term 4	Term 5
Dialogue Prior knowledge on Citizenship education including secularisation and democracy. For students to explore, through a Christian lens, British democracy and rule of law. Christian attitudes towards other groups and potential clashes with scientific thought. Christianity in Britain, religion in public life, secularisation, clashes between and within conflicting ideas, attitudes towards other groups.	Dialogue Prior knowledge on Citizenship education including secularisation and democracy. For students to understand different forms of dialogue, including religious dialogue. To understand the potential conflict and resolutions. Interfaith dialogue, exclusivism, inclusivism, pluralism, Christianity and non-religious views, potential disagreement.	Revision and examination technique Christian beliefs and practices Relationships Existence of God Religion Peace and Conflict	Revision and examination technique Islam beliefs and practices Dialogue	NA
Equipment needed for sessions:		What can you do to support your child?
Text book Exercise book Appropriate equipment		Encouragement and engagement with homework tasks Documentaries and wider reading On-line practice exam papers
How will learning be assessed and progress measured?		Extension and enrichment activities:
Regular key terminology tests. Mid and end of unit examinations questions. Question and answer in-class assessment. Oral examinations. The tutor will also monitor effort levels in sessions. Judging criteria will be given and used at the end of and during the unit for students to reflect on the standard of their own work and that of others		There is a Wednesday or Thursday extension group		